Enrichment Opportunities!

Please email or come see Mr. Perfetto in Student Services for questions regarding or interest in the following opportunities. This is not an exhaustive list; students are encouraged to research their own enrichment/summer activities based on their interests and goals, and feel free to pass along activities to be added to this document.

The Shelton Challenge: A six-day summer experience through NC State University for rising 9th-12th graders with a minimum GPA of 3.0 who are motivated to learn how to lead others. The cost is $625 and includes meals, lodging, and curriculum. The camps run in June and July, and you must register before the 1st of each month for that month’s camps. To learn more or apply, visit: www.ncsu.edu/sheltonleadership

Reynolds Young Writers Workshop: Denison University’s week-long summer creative writing program for current sophomores and juniors. Students will be housed in Ohio and will work within small groups with university faculty members. Operates from June 12-19, application deadline March 6, 2016. Visit https://reynolds.denison.edu/ to apply or learn more.

SMILE Camp: An interactive and hands-on experience designed to inspire scientific exploration among gifted students. There is a camp one Saturday per month during the academic year, and 9 weeks of summer camp. Held in various locations. Visit http://smilecamp.org/ to learn more or register.

Duke Youth Programs: Duke University offers 13 different programs for students grade 6-11. These programs vary in nature and purpose, but you can learn more or register at http://www.learnmore.duke.edu/youth/

Triangle Youth Leadership Conference: The two-day conference will take place on NC State’s campus from February 19th to February 20th. The conference will cost $100 per student, which includes lodging for one night and five meals. The conference includes workshops, guest speakers, and problem-solving challenges. Apply through January 8, 2016 at http://triangleleadership.com/application

Summer Ventures in Science and Mathematics: Summer Ventures is a free, state-funded program for academically talented students who may pursue careers based in science and mathematics. This program is offered at the following campuses: Appalachian State University, East Carolina University, NC Central University, UNC-Charlotte, UNC-Wilmington, and Western Carolina University. www.summerventures.org

NC Summer Institute in Choral Art, Inc.: Young singers work with renowned conductors at Warren Wilson College; costs $210 for one session in June. www.ncsica.com Operates from June 19-24, 2016, applications due by April 1, 2016.

Appalachian State University Summer Camps A variety of academic and athletic camps are offered annually at ASU. To learn more: www.camps.appstate.edu

Martha Guy Summer Institute: Rising seniors participate in leadership development and interact with business leaders, including a trip to NYC and Washington, DC; 2016 tuition for the entire three-week program, trip included, is $1,500 plus a $325 meal plan. www.business.appstate.edu/marthaguy/ Applications are due by February 26, 2016.
ASU Cannon Music Camp A three-week music-filled retreat in the Blue Ridge Mountains of North Carolina, Cannon Music Camp offers the most comprehensive course of musical instruction in the Southeast, with intensive college preparatory work in performance and music theory. Campers participate in daily ensemble rehearsals and music theory classes. Operates from June 25th-July 16th, 2016. Costs approximately $1525 plus a meal plan. Applications are accepted after Dec 1. Visit http://cannon.appstate.edu/ for more info.

Science Enrichment Preparation Program is an 8-week academic enrichment program that targets first-generation, underrepresented minority, rural, and/or socioeconomically disadvantaged undergraduate students (rising sophomores and juniors) who seek admission into graduate/health professional programs. Students will take classes, seminars, and shadow a working professional. Additionally, Scholars will receive educational supplies, lodging on the UNC Chapel Hill campus, limited travel expenses (contingent upon funding) and a competitive stipend. Learn more and apply at: http://nchcap.unc.edu/college/sep-program/

UNC Catalyst Conference 100 select high school students from across the state are chosen to attend a weekend-long exploration of social justice issues affecting both America and the larger world. This gives your generation the power to come together and begin changing the world. The conference will take place on the campus of UNC- Chapel Hill on February 19-21, 2016. A $50 registration fee is required upon acceptance (DO NOT include this with the application) to help offset the cost of housing and food for the weekend, although financial need can be considered. Only high school students in grades 9-11 are eligible for application. No seniors or students who have previously attended will be eligible. Applications must be submitted by Friday, November 11. For more information and to apply: https://unccatalyst.wordpress.com/

Duke Splash Strives to bring motivated middle school and high school students (7th to 12 grade) to Duke University for one day each semester to take short, interactive classes designed and taught by passionate Duke Students. The next event will be held Saturday, November 7. Registration is due by November 5. The event is completely free of charge and lunch will be provided for all students, although there is a recommended donation of $10 for participating students. For more information, visit here: dukesplash.learningu.org

NCSU Communication Camp is an intensive five-day workshop designed for rising junior and senior high school students interested in learning about television production — behind, and in front of, the camera. Daily morning and afternoon sessions will help students develop and execute basic communication skills in public speaking, television studio production, and broadcasting. College instructors will provide individual training to a limited class of 20 students in a broadcast-quality studio on the NCSU campus. Students will be selected for this camp only with the signed approval and recommendation from the administration of their respective high schools. The session is Monday, July 18 - Friday, July 22, 2016, from 10:00 a.m. – 3:00 p.m., on the NCSU Campus. For more information, visit here: http://communication.chass.ncsu.edu/academics/other_programs/cc/cc.php

NC Health Careers Access Program The leadership series for future healthcare professionals is 10 installments of 2 hour evening programs that will teach, inspire, and motivate students interested in the health care field. Each program is on UNC’s campus and enrollment is open to middle and high school students. For more information and to sign up: http://nchcap.unc.edu/ and spaces are limited.
NCSU Summer Engineering Programs NC State University is offering summer programs for high school students interested in engineering. Ninth and tenth graders are invited to attend a week-long day camp and eleventh and twelfth grade students can attend a week-long residential camp. Both camps are filled with challenging and fun engineering activities. For more information and to apply, visit http://www.engr.ncsu.edu/theengineeringplace/summerprograms/high-school/ Price is $375 for 9th and 10th graders, $700-$850 for 11th and 12th graders.

Boston University Summer Term Boston University offers several summer programs for high school students. Programs vary in duration, restrictions in age, receiving college credit and deadlines. For more information and to apply, visit http://www.bu.edu/summer/high-school-programs/ The website will release information about Summer 2016 on December 15, 2015.

2015 Emory Pre-College Program Emory University offers rising juniors and seniors the opportunity to experience college level academics with either six-week credit courses, three-week non-credit institutes, or two-week non-credit courses. For more information and to apply, visit http://precollege.emory.edu/

NYU Precollege New York University offers rising juniors and seniors the opportunity to earn college credit and experience college life in New York City. For more information and to apply, visit http://www.nyu.edu/admissions/precollege.html Applications will be available on February 1, 2016.

Cornell University Summer College Cornell University is offering summer programs for high school students. Students can earn 3-6 college credits, work with Cornell faculty, and attend a college fair and receive one-on-one admissions counseling. For more information and to apply, visit http://www.sce.cornell.edu/sc/

NC Youth Conservation Corps (NCYCC) NCYCC is a partnership between the Conservation Trust of North Carolina and the Vermont Youth Conservation Corps that gives students the opportunity to make a lasting impact on North Carolina’s landscape. Youth ages 16-24 who have a strong work ethic, a desire to make a difference and are open to listening and learning may apply. Compensation includes a paycheck, real work experience and training, and the opportunity to spend your summer outdoors. For more information and to apply, visit http://www.ctnc.org/about/ycc/

Shelton Leadership Challenge ECU is offering a one-week summer program for rising 9-12 grade students. Students will expand their knowledge and skills on what it takes to be a leader. Students must have a minimum of a 3.0 unweighted GPA and the cost is $600 for the 6-day program. For more information and to apply, visit http://www.ecu.edu/cs-admin/oeied/What-is-Shelton-Leadership-Challenge.cfm The dates for 2016 have not yet been set.

Summer Textile Exploration Program (STEP) 2014 NCSU’s College of Textiles is offering a week-long summer program for rising high school seniors. There are 4 week-long sessions with up to 30 students per session. Students will live on campus and will learn about the departments, degrees, scholarships and opportunities available in the college. For more information and to apply, visit https://www.tx.ncsu.edu/admissions/pre-college-activities/step/index.cfm Dates for 2016 have not yet been set.

Summer at St. Andrews St. Andrews University in Laurinburg, NC offers 3 consecutive week-long sessions for students grades 8-12. Students can attend any or all sessions and have a variety of courses from which to choose. For more information and to register, visit http://academiccampnc.org/ 2016 dates have not yet been set.

DUKE TIP Duke University’s program aims to identify academically talented students and help them to reach their potential. Duke TIP offers diverse summer programs that challenge students with fast-paced courses across liberal arts and science curricula. For more information and to apply, visit http://tip.duke.edu/node/61 Spaces fill quickly to apply early.

Duke Youth Programs Duke Youth Programs have offered summer academic enrichment for motivated students for over 20 years. The camps offered approach learning as a shared responsibility among students, instructors, and counselors. For more information and to apply, visit http://www.learnmore.duke.edu/youth/

Smith College Summer Programs Smith College is offering summer programs for academically talented and motivated high school females. Programs vary in schedule and financial aid is available. For more information and to apply, visit http://www.smith.edu/summer/

Stanford Summer Arts Institute for summer 2016. This program will offer interdisciplinary courses in music, drama/theater, visual design, and the arts. This will be the first annual installment of the program, as it is replacing the Stanford Youth Orchestra program. For more info: http://youthorchestra.stanford.edu/

CSI Camp 2014 Waynesburg University is offering their 9th annual CSI camp in June 2015. Students will have the opportunity to learn from certified experts in surveillance techniques and forensic science, canine workshops and the role of forensics in court cases. For more information and to apply, visit http://info.waynesburg.edu/CSI-Camp/

Sports Announcing Camp Waynesburg University is offering their annual Sports Announcing Camp in summer of 2016. Students will learn and practice necessary skills to become a successful sportscaster. For more information and to apply, visit http://info.waynesburg.edu/waynesburg-university-sports-announcing-camp-2014

Regis Summer College Regis College offers a two week program for high school juniors and seniors to earn up to six college credits in either the School of Nursing, Science and Health Profession, or the School of Liberal Arts, Education, and Social Sciences. For more information and to apply, visit http://www.regiscollege.edu/undergraduate_programs/High_School_Program.cfm 2016 dates have not yet been set.

ISV Student Ambassador Program The International Student Volunteer program is an opportunity for juniors and seniors to represent their country and volunteer abroad during the summer with other student volunteer ambassadors. The program is 4 weeks long: 2 weeks of volunteer service, and 2 weeks of exploration of the host country. All students who complete the ISV U.S. Student Ambassador Program will receive the President’s Volunteer Service Award. For more information and to apply, visit http://www.isvolunteers.org/

JSA Summer Programs The Junior State of America summer programs give students the opportunity to strengthen leadership skills, live on a college campus, and study with university professors. This is an academic program for freshman, sophomores, and juniors focusing on current events and civic engagement.
There are programs held at Stanford, Beijing, and more. For more information on the programs and to apply, visit http://jsa.org/summer-programs/

DreamSports Part-Time Jobs Dream Sports Center is currently hiring for multiple positions. To apply, you must be 16 years or older, have a 3.0+ GPA, and have a letter of recommendation from a teacher. For more information and to apply, visit http://www.dreamsportscenter.com/about-us/jobs/

Youth for Understanding Study Abroad Youth for Understanding USA offers year, semester, and summer long programs in more than 40 countries. Scholarships and volunteer opportunities are also available. For more information and to apply, visit http://www.yfu-usa.org/

CIEE High School Abroad & Gap Year CIEE offers several programs to high school students whether you are looking for a summer program, high school abroad, leadership academy, or gap year abroad. For more information and to apply, visit http://www.ciee.org/high-school-study-abroad/

Study Abroad in Germany The Congress-Bundestag Youth Exchange Program (CBYX) is for motivated high school students who want to fully immerse themselves in German culture by living with a host family and attending a local high school. For more information and to apply, visit http://www.usagermanyscholarship.org